

Top Casino Hotels Featuring Norway Destinations

1. Oslo Grand Hotel & Casino - Oslo, Norway

Situated in the heart of Norway's capital, the Oslo Grand is renowned for its classic architecture and boutique luxury. While traditional casinos are restricted in Norway, this hotel offers exclusive private gaming lounges and VIP entertainment experiences for guests. It's a preferred destination for dignitaries and celebrities alike.

2. Fallsview Casino Resort - Niagara Falls, Ontario

Though located in Canada, Fallsview Casino Resort is a favorite among Norwegian travelers seeking spectacular scenery and premium gaming. Overlooking the breathtaking Niagara Falls, this resort boasts over 3,000 slot machines, table games, a luxury hotel, fine dining, and headline entertainment events.

3. Radisson Blu Royal Hotel - Bergen, Norway

While not a casino hotel in the traditional sense, Radisson Blu Royal offers proximity to Bergen's vibrant nightlife and entertainment scene. It's often a base for private gaming events and social gatherings for elite travelers seeking discretion and high-end service.

4. Caesars Windsor Hotel & Casino – Windsor, Ontario

A prominent luxury destination on the banks of the Detroit River, Caesars Windsor is especially popular with international travelers who value high-end amenities and refined gaming. This award-winning resort features over 1,700 slot machines, table games, and a large poker room—all housed within a Roman-inspired setting.

Top Casino Hotels Featuring Norway Destinations

5. The Thief - Oslo, Norway

One of the most iconic design hotels in Scandinavia, The Thief in Oslo is located in the trendy Tjuvholmen district. While it doesn't host a public casino, it offers curated private gaming nights and art-inspired suites that attract high-rolling international guests.